

Lesson 2

Listen to the story:

A Beautiful Butterfly

Jonali is in the garden. “Oh, how beautiful the garden is! And that butterfly! How colourful! Let me catch it”, Jonali says to herself.

She runs after the butterfly. But the butterfly flies to a dahlia. Jonali walks slowly to the flower. “I’ll catch it.” But the butterfly flies away.

Jonali looks for the butterfly. “Ah! There it is.” It is sitting on a marigold. “I’ll catch it this time”, says Jonali. Just then the wind comes whoosh..... It blows away the butterfly. “Issh...! I missed it.”

The butterfly is now on a rose. Jonali is very careful this time. Slowly and silently she walks to the flower.

“Oh, I got it. It’s in my hand now.” She looks at it happily. “But what’s this? It’s not the butterfly. It’s only a dry leaf.”

Jonali looks out for the butterfly again. She smiles. “Aha! It’s on the sunflower. I must get it this time.” She goes to the flower. But the sunflower nods its head and the butterfly flies away again.

“Oh dear! The butterfly seems to be flying all the time.” It is free. It can fly so high. Jonali looks up at the butterfly. She says, “I wish I could fly like a butterfly high up in the sky. I’m so happy I let it go.”
